

Mirror at the Station

♩ = 166

Text + Music: Rene Finn, 19.10.2005

Intro

Verse

1. At - ten-tion, an an-nounce - ment! Be care-ful at track nine! Your
 2. now an in-for - ma - tion for all peo-ple at track eight! You must train de-parts short - ly at the in - di - ca - ted time. The be a lit-tle pat - ient 'cause you will have to wait! Your des - ti - na-tion of this train, you know, will be your past. Be - next train has a short de - lay, but still it's on the way. Get cause of this, you should hold on, the train'll be run-ning fast!

 in as soon as pos - sib - le, 'cause fu - ture is it's goal!

Refrain

Hope, you will need strength, you will need cou-age for your task.

Faith, you have to trust and there's no ques-tion you should ask.

This is not a com-mon place, this sto-ry has no end.

g⁷ F Es d

On the rail-way sta-tion of life, pre-sent and fut-ure and

As F

past will shake their hands.

Interlude d B g⁷ A⁴ 1. A³

And

Bridge 2. A³ D fis G D

On track num-ber ten waits a lone-ly pas-sen-ger His train is-n't yet here, so he has time to look a-round. On the oth-er side of the plat-form stands a mir-ror tall,

D fis G A

C G D

C G A

it shows him: Just the pre-sent counts in life at

Solo d C d C d C d C all.

B F g C B F g C §